

ACROSS

- 1 Was the piper oot o' Forfar toon a Tyneside Gypsy? (7, 3)
- 6 Formerly reversed in the year of Our Lord - redundant (4)
- 10 French organ goes wild (5)
- 11 This is a Border farm - get aff, MacLeod! (9)
- 12 James casually opens new Scottish symbol (3, 5)
- 13 SEE 19
- 15 Cuban domain topic at the back of your head (7)
- 17 Piper initially angles to decorate (7)
- 19, 13 He provides wad - eleven million - enough notes to keep us going (7, 5)
- 21 Scottish Chamber Orchestra, band to escape! (7)
- 22 Confused, I sent small graphic to go in the big picture (5)
- 24 Sound of Geordie seen hanging around Fleshmarket Close (with namesake) (8)
- 27 Rip out professional medley (9)
- 28 Gerald, losing smile, becoming kingly (5)
- 29 A measured diatribe? (4)
- 30 Ya dancer! (4, 6)

DOWN

- 1 Boast about apparel (4)
- 2 No cigar, All (biological result) (9)
- 3 Darling, by the sound of it, was an agricultural pioneer (5)
- 4 Pipemaker's whereabouts revealed by lost revolutionary (5, 2)
- 5 I-tunes article for relatives (7)
- 7 Mysteries surround scrambled eggs replacing ditto machine (5)
- 8 A shady suggestion, we hear, sshhhh (10)
- 9 Andra's afterthought, Scots harbinger of Spring (8)
- 14 Scots jumper catches caprice, leading to feeble whine (3, 7)
- 16 Decorate carton? Obtain XP! (8)
- 18 Going to high definition, perhaps accompanied by Joy at bedtime (9)
- 20 Large Scots drive where pipes and drums have unknown beginnings (7)
- 21 A piper plays before the annual football game here (7)
- 23 Worn by 30 (5)
- 25 The 'Piper's Maggot' sounds like one, but isn't (5)
- 26 Alone in Scotland, begin at the end to find energy (4)

BLETHERSKITE

